

"Kamehameha Cigarette Tobacco"

SMOKE
COOL AND DELICIOUS

HOPP & CO.—J. HOPP & CO.

Parlor Chairs

You are always on the outlook for something new; something attractive. We have some new designs, fresh to Honolulu, suitable for parlor or library use that you will probably wish to purchase if you come and see them. The prices are right, too.

Office Chairs

We have a special line of these, too, built to combine comfort with utility. Revolving Chairs that are a pleasure to sit in, and comfortable to dictate from.

Enameled Iron Bedsteads

There is nothing that looks cozier, neater, more inviting in a tropical climate than these Bedsteads. They are the healthiest, also.

Parlor Tables

In mahogany, bird's-eye maple and golden oak—dainty and useful.

Upholstery, Etc.

J. Hopp & Co.

The Leading Furniture Dealers.

King and Bethel Streets.

HOPP & CO.—J. HOPP & CO.

Box Papers

of good quality continue to find favor with people of good taste and judgment, and we invite their inspection of our line.

It includes all the most approved shades and styles, at prices ranging from 35c a box upward.

SEE THE LINE NOW DISPLAYED

—AT—
Wall, Nichols Co., Ltd.
KING STREET

NEW LINE OF Golf, Stanley and White Shirts.

JUST IN New Ties, Hose, Suspenders and Underwear.

PANAMA HATS,

Straw and Wool Hats, Pajamas, Night Shirts, Boss of the Road Overalls, Trunks and Valises, at

J. LANDO'S

FORT STREET.

JUSTICES ARE BUSY

Cases in Which Ex-Queen is a Party.

NO ROOM FOR FEDERAL PRISONERS

Oahu Jail Can Hold no More of Them—Chinese Cases Postponed Till Friday.

The Supreme Court, in the action of C. B. Wilson against Lydia K. Dominis, otherwise known as Liliuokalani, has reversed the judgment of the First Circuit Court in allowing the plaintiff to file an amended bill on the grounds that the bill as offered was not an amended one, but a new one.

The upper court holds that the amended bill was based upon the same facts and the same set of facts, as was the original complaint. The second instrument had certain additions to it that did not appear in the first, but this in no sense made it a new complaint. It was the old one, with modifications in wording and in form.

The decree appealed from dismissing the bill in this case should have been without prejudice.

The Supreme Court has ordered the case to be remanded to the First Circuit Court for action at the discretion of the Judge, in the matter of receiving an amended bill.

The above section arose out of the fact, as alleged by plaintiff, that the Queen offered to buy his home for him which was mortgaged, and deed the same back to him because of certain services he had performed for her, but for which he had not been paid. Cecil Brown bought the property, acting as Liliuokalani's agent, paying for the same $4,000, instead of $7,500, the actual value of the property. In 1898 J. O. Carter induced plaintiff, by fraudulent misrepresentations, to deed the property to him, who in turn deeded it to Cecil Brown, who then made it over to Lydia K. Dominis. Plaintiff believed that at the time he was making the transfer he was deeding it to his wife and mother-in-law.

The prayer of the bill is in the alternative (1) That the defendant may be decreed to hold the premises as trustee for him during the remainder of his natural life (2) That the defendant may be decreed to execute a deed conveying to the plaintiff a life interest in the property. An injunction restraining the defendant from selling or leasing the premises pending the hearing or from proceeding with the ejectment suit is also asked for, and a prayer for process and general relief. The injunction was granted. The defendant demurred to the bill on several grounds. After hearing the demurrer was sustained for want of equity in the bill. The plaintiff then asked and was granted leave to move to amend the bill, which was also allowed. It was upon the amended complaint that the appeal to the highest tribunal was made.

Abraham Lewis appears for plaintiff and Robertson & Wilder for defendant.

LOWER COURT SUSTAINED.

The Supreme Court has decided in favor of the judgment of the First Circuit Court in the case of Wong Kwai vs. Liliuokalani.

The court holds that a power of attorney is not revoked by the mere giving of a similar power to another person.

An oral acceptance of a written offer may be sent through third persons who need not be formally authorized to act for the acceptor.

A letter, set forth in the opinion, is held to contain an offer and not a mere request for an offer. The suit is one for specific performance of an alleged agreement to lease the ahupua'a of Lulumahal on the Island of Kauai.

The main question in the contest is whether a certain letter written by one Heleluhe to one Akana, was an offer to lease the land, and if so whether the offer was accepted and whether Heleluhe and Akana were the duly authorized agents of the defendant and plaintiff respectively. The plaintiff had leased the land originally for ten years under two successive renewals, and had been in possession as lessee under defendant's predecessors and herself for more than thirty years. Heleluhe was defendant's constant advisor for many years up to the time of his death, which occurred after the bringing of this suit. In 1898 the plaintiff consulted one Akana as to the best means by which a renewal could be obtained. A letter was written to Heleluhe by Akana, and in reply he stated that Wong Kwai might have the land for $2,300 for ten years' time, provided he made his bid prior to January 1, 1900. He agreed to the terms of the offer, but when the lease was offered to Heleluhe he refused to sign it, saying some one else had offered him $2,700 for the lease.

Under the interpretation of the court Heleluhe's letter contained an offer which the plaintiff intended to accept. It was not, as has been construed, a mere letter of friendly advice. They came to an understanding which would have been carried out had not the $2,700 presented itself.

Hatch & Silliman and C. Brown appear for plaintiff; Robertson & Wilder for the defendant.

NEEDS FEDERAL HOTEL.

It is beginning to look as though United States Marshal Ray would have to start a hotel of his own in order to accommodate all the prisoners who are now ordered to appear before Judge Estee.

Yesterday Sheriff Brown informed the marshal that he would have to refuse admission to any more prisoners of the federal government, as the Oahu jail was now filled, and there was room for not even one more. Hotel de Bay, with constables and police officers for chamber maids, and Deputy Hendry as the man behind the register, are possibilities.

HOLT HEIRS DISPLEASED.

The two heirs of Robert W. Holt, deceased, John Dominis Holt and James Robinson Holt, ask that Henry Smith, their guardian, and the executor of the estate of which they are heirs, be ordered to pay them $1,007.35, one-half the sum they say he is unlawfully withholding from them.

The two petitioners have based their claim upon the figures given them by Bruce Cartwright, the former administrator, who held that position for five years previous to June 12, 1900. The annual returns made to the two heirs amounted to $3,712.01, taken as an average.

Henry Smith, who was appointed on June 12, 1900, has just made his first annual accounting, and has made over the sum of $2,300. The two Hols allege that the net income of the estate during the past twelve months was $4,414.70, and that the administrator has withheld $2,114.70. They ask that one-half of this amount be placed to their credit.

PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY.

Lum Mau, who conducts a business at 1037 Nuuanu street, under the firm name and style of Chu Yip & Co., has petitioned to Judge Estee to be declared a bankrupt.

He is unable to pay his debts in full, and is willing to surrender all his property for the benefit of his creditors, except such property as is exempted by law.

The liabilities of Lum Mau are $15,093; his assets, $12,650.

ORDER FOR PROBATE ISSUED.

An order of probate has been issued for the benefit of Marion M. Luning, the administrator of the estate of John W. Luning, late of this city. Letters testamentary were granted Mrs. Luning on the 15th of March of this year. The will of decedent was executed on June 20, 1891, in the presence of James T. Morgan and Harry Armitage.

THE HENSHALL ESTATE.

An inventory of the estate of the late William Henshall has been filed. The items enumerated are as follows: Fifteen shares Honouliuli Sugar Company, par value $100 each, $1,500; 100 shares Florence Oil Company, par value, $1 each, $100; 25 shares Robert Grieve Publishing Company, par value, $20 each, $500; 50 shares Kamalo Sugar Company, par value $20 each, $1,000; furniture, $2,000; amount realized from sale of house and buggy, $273; amount realized from sale of office furniture and books, $500.95; cash in Bishop & Co., $6,837.353.

A CHINESE BEAUTY.

The case of Kam Yon, the Chinese maiden who, it is claimed, has been landed here in violation of the exclusion act, was heard in part yesterday, and then put over until Friday by Judge Estee. The frail and fair Kam Yon is a young lady of high degree, according to Chinese standards. Her raiment outshines the rainbow in color, and in her hair she braids the brightest of cardinal silk. She is the proud possessor of a most diminutive pair of "Golden lilies," as the Chinese term the "Tribbles" of their aristocratic womanhood. Her feet are so small that it is with difficulty that she hobbles to and from her carriage. She paints her forehead white and her lips red. She is always attended by a girl who is of much manner birth, and who lacks the small feet, the make-up, and the rich silks of her mistress, but who, judged by western ideas of feminine loveliness, is much the fairer of the two.

HE HAD SOME EVIDENCE.

Laying upon the altar a revolver and his kit of burglar tools as evidence of his good faith, William Hill startled the 300 persons who were attending religious services at the Pacific Garden Mission, 100 Van Buren street, last night, by confessing that he was a thief, but now desired to turn from evil ways and live a Christian life. The Rev. J. S. Detweiler of St. Paul and Assistant Superintendent Harry Monroe of the mission had been preaching and the latter had just finished his address when the self-confessed burglar walked to the altar.

"Friends," he said, "I have been cracking safes, robbing stores and picking pockets a good many years for a living. I have served terms in Sing Sing and Joliet. But tonight I am going to end my criminal career and start out on a new life. I was walking along State street tonight when I heard the men speaking from your gospel wagon. They said something that seemed to touch me. I followed the wagon here and entered with the crowd. The more I heard the more I became convinced that this is the time for me to reform. I want you people to help give me a start in the right direction. I have found it easier to steal than work, but now I want to work for my living, and if you will help me I will work for your mission."

This significant conversion was received with the greatest enthusiasm. The man left at the close of the meeting, first promising Mr. Monroe to return today, when an effort will be made to get him work.

True to his promise, Hill appeared at the office of the Pacific Garden Mission today and declared that he had not repented his resolution, but was rather more firmly determined to gain an honest livelihood. Mr. Monroe started out with the new convert at once to see if he could get him some employment.—Chicago Daily News.

Not an Asylum—Visitor—"It must be very convenient to have an asylum right in the heart of your city." New York Policeman—"Asylum! This is the Stock Exchange."—Ohio State Journal.

Great Reduction Sale

Thousands of Dollars worth of sea-sable merchandise will be sold THIS WEEK at CUT PRICES. We have received a large shipment by the Sierra. All these new Goods will be sold at prices that will astonish you

Cut Prices in DRY GOODS

BARGAINS FOR EVERYBODY.

Monday and Tuesday Only on Sale

2780 READY MADE SHEETS

500 Sheets, ready for use 72X90; regular price 65c, on Sale 52½c.
500 72X90; extra heavy cotton, regular price 85c on Sale 72½c.
500 72X90; .. Hemstitched, regular price 90c on sale 82c.
400 90X90; .. heavy, regular price 75c on Sale 65c.
375 90X90; extra heavy quality, regular price 90c on Sale 82½c.
485 90X90; Hemstitched, best quality, regular price

$1.00 on Sale 92½c.

Greatest Cut in Prices in Laces.

SEE OUR WINDOW DISPLAY

GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES.

10 per cent DISCOUNT ON ALL CASH PURCHASES IN ALL MUSLIN UNDERWEAR

MISSES' SHIRT WAISTS

We will close out the entire line 75c, 90c, $1 and $1.25 Waists; your choice at 25c each.

MATTING SALE

Our entire stock sold at Cost Price. We carry many grades and have a large variety of patterns to select from.

Pacific Import Co.

PROGRESS BLOCK.

FORT STREET.

THE DECAY OF FRANCE IN POPULATION AND RESOURCES

NEW YORK, July 11.—The Paris cor-has now piled up a debt involving an respondent of the Tribune says: annual charge for interest of nearly $200,000,000, or, in other words, every man, woman and child in France has now to 1902 is officially proposed to be $62,420,000, pay $5 per annum for interest on the which at first sight seems to be $3,100,000,000 national debt. The army costs the coun- less than in 1901, but if it is taken into try $120,000,000 a year, and the total ex- penditure for 1902 is officially proposed account that the cost of maintaining to be $720,000,000. Moreover, reflections the marine infantry and artillery, upon the French census cause renewed amounting to about $5,400,000, has been uneasiness. Last March the population transferred from the navy to the min- in round numbers was 38,600,000, being an increase of only 300,000 since 1896, and istries of war and the colonies, it is even this meager result is mostly ac- counted for by the fact that France in-counted for by Paris and its suburbs, tends to spend upon the navy during the increase has been 232,000, due 1902 is in reality $2,300,000 in excess of the principal to foreign immigration, so naval expenses for the current year, that in the rest of France the popula- It is a matter of serious consideration has been augmented by only 83,000 for the French whether they are not during the last five years. That is to spending upon their navy more than say, for military and naval purposes the their national resources warrant. Francepopulation is almost stationary, and in this respect France stands alone among the great nations of Europe.

Under these conditions, M. Jaures, the Socialist leader and many advanced thinkers among the radicals and radical socialists, hold that it is impossible for France to have at the same time a navy and army of the first rank, simply because she has not the resources of men and money to maintain both.

WOMEN WHO ANSWER "ADS."

"I've actually got so that I dread to advertise for female employees," said the manager of an art store. "If it was possible to get through the work myself I'd rather do it than to interview a mob of feminine callers.

"To select a good assistant didn't use to be such a big job as it is now. For one thing, there were not formerly so many triflers. You would be surprised to know how many women answer advertisements for help who do not want employment and neither could nor would take it if it was offered to them at a good salary. They are what I call professional advertisement answerers.

"I had occasion to advertise only last week for a clerk, and as a protection against these nuisances I stated that no professional callers need apply. Yet they came, at least a dozen of them. Fortunately, I've got so I can spot them on short notice and don't fool away much time on them.

"When the unqualified callers began to besiege me in such numbers I was under the impression that the regular round-ers were the representatives of agencies who wished to get us on their list and furnish their own applicants on commission, but I was mistaken in this, for while a few of the professionals are connected, most of them pursue the fad of their own accord. It is, without doubt the craziest hobby womankind has ever ridden, and my only hope is that they will soon run down.

"A goodly percentage of these idlers are social reformers who are bent on writing books and tracts and things. Somewhere they have imbibed the idea that men who employ help are regular vampires, and their object in visiting us is to investigate our methods of securing clerks and afterward acquaint the public with our evil procedures.

"But I can stand even these troublesome spies with even more equanimity than the women who finding time hang heavily on their hands, tramp around from office to office for the fun of the thing."

A CAUSE OF REJOICING.

We're lucky, let's confess with mirth, Till summer heat shall pass, We weren't living when this earth Was all a molten mass.

The Place for Him.—"Shure, Mrs. M'Googin, an' it is thrue that yer mon's got a position in the place forer?" "Yis, indade, Mrs. O'Hoolihan. An' phyv not? He was after gittin' too fat." "Worruck."—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT.

This year's annual convention of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, beginning in Cincinnati on July 6, must prove a source of pride to President Clark. When the Rev. F. E. Clark started the Christian Endeavor society, in Portland, Me., in 1881, in his own church, he could have had but little idea of the future spread of his work. The Christian Endeavor societies now number more than 60,000, with an estimated membership of 3,500,000. The Endeavorers are to be found in every part of the globe, civilized or barbarous.